(Lawyer)

THE COURT having considered the representations made by the parties at the November 30, 2012 hearing, as well as the records and files of the case, the Court hereby makes the following findings:

1. On November 20, 2012, Gilbert Levy was appointed to represent Fred Frink. At the time of the appointment, trial was scheduled for January 14, 2013.

2. This case involves a number of serious charges, i.e., one count of False, Fictitious, and Fraudulent Claims, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 287; two counts of Fictitious Obligations, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 514(a)(2); three counts of Money Laundering, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1957 and 2; and one count of Bank Fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344.

3. The government has produced a large volume of discovery, including many witness statements, bank records, financial analysis, and tax documents. The defense

1 represents that it requires an extended period of time to review this material, and to
2 otherwise prepare a defense to the charges.

3 4. Frink has executed a Speedy Trial waiver through June 30, 2013.

4 5. In light of these circumstances, the Court finds that a failure to grant the 5 continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation,
6 taking into account the exercise of due diligence, within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. §
7 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

8 6. The Court further finds that the ends of justice will be served by ordering a 9 continuance in this case, that a continuance is necessary to insure adequate time for 10 defense investigation, effective preparation and an opportunity for the defendant to 11 benefit from his efforts; and that these factors outweigh the best interests of the public in 12 a more speedy trial, within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

ORDER STRIKING MOTIONS
Date 12/10/12

This matter comes before the court on Defendant's "Ex Parte Motion" (Dkt. # 20) Defendant's "Request for Court Order for Counsel to Have Access to the Court" (Dkt. # 28) and Defendant's "Motion for Summary Judgment and Motion for Dismissal" (Dkt. # 32). Local General Rule 2 prohibits a represented party from appearing or acting on his or her own behalf in the case until after the party requests by motion to proceed on his or her own behalf. Parties in the motion that he or she has provided copies of the motion to his or her current counsel and to the opposing party, and is granted an order of substitution by the court terminating the party's attorney as counsel and substituting the party to proceed pro se." GR 2(g).

Defendant filed the above referenced motions on his own behalf on October 15, 2012, October 29, 2012, and November 6, 2012. However, Defendant has been represented by counsel since September 7, 2012. See Minute Entry (Dkt. # 5). The Court, therefore, STRIKES Defendant's motions (Dkt. # 20, 28, 32).

SEATTLE

UNITED STATES

Cause No. CR12-262RSL

MOTION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Dated: December 7, 2012
(Oral Argument Requested)

Plaintiff,

Defendant.

Defendant Fred Frank, by and through his attorney, Gilbert H. Levy, seeks entry of an order as follows:

Defendant requests entry of an order requiring Mark Edward Hill to appear before this Court and show cause why he should not be subject to an order requiring him to refrain from any further contact with the Defendant, and requiring him to refrain from filing any pleadings in this Court, which purport to be on the Defendant's behalf. Defendant's furthermore requests that the U.S. Marshals be directed to serve a copy of this order to show cause on Mr. Hill.

II. FACTS RELEVANT TO MOTION

Defendant is charged with several offenses pertaining to his filing of an allegedly fraudulent tax return. Unrelated to the underlying offense, the Defendant has a complicated relationship with an individual named Mark Edward Hill. Mr. Hill is not an attorney, but has been holding himself out to the Defendant as a legal expert with many years of experience, and he has been significantly involved in the Defendant's affairs for purposes to represent him in a foreign proceeding regarding the Defendant's home. He has also undertaken to file several pleadings on the Defendant's behalf in this case and in a related federal civil suit. The pleadings are often incoherent and wholly without merit. Mr. Hill's involvement in the case disrupted the attorney-client relationship that the Defendant had with his previous attorney. The filing of the civil suit was the impetus for U.S. Rotation to file a petition to revoke the Defendant's bond.

The Defendant was arrested by the Marshalls pending a hearing on the petition to revoke the bond. The Defendant met with his new counsel, who was under significant pressure to revoke the bond to the Defendant's appearance. At this meeting, counsel explained that Mr. Hill's filings were frivolous, would not assist him in his case, and were the cause for the petition to revoke the bond. The Defendant agreed to renege on Mr. Hill.

Magistrate Judge Donohue presided over an initial appearance regarding the alleged bond violation. Judge Donohue scheduled an evidentiary hearing before Magistrate Judge Tsuchida. In the interim, Judge Donohue ordered the Defendant to refrain from any further contact with Mr. Hill. The Defendant represented to the Court that he intended to dismiss the frivolous lawsuit and has since filed a notice of voluntary dismissal with prejudice.

1 The Defendant does not dispute the disassociation provision; in fact, it has been
2 welcomed by him and his friends, who believe that Mr. Hill's pervasive influence over the 3 Defendant is negative. However, Defendant's efforts to disengage himself from Mr. Hill have 4 proven difficult. Defendant's friends and the undersigned have spoken with Mr. Hill in the wake
5 of these proceedings, and he has indicated an unwillingness to help the Defendant abide by this 6 condition. Specifically, he lives in Defendant's home and has refused to move out. He has also
7 indicated that he cannot promise that he will not file any further pleadings on the Defendant's
8 behalf, even if the Defendant does not consent to them. The Defendant faces a substantial risk of 9 incarceration pending trial if Mr. Hill's egregious conduct is not brought under control by this

10 court. Attached as Exhibit A is a declaration by the undersigned attesting to these facts.
11
12 ARGUMENT
13 This Court has the inherent authority to issue an order enjoining Mr. Hill from engaging 14 in disruptive behavior. "Inherent powers derive from the absolute need for a trial judge to 15 maintain order and preserve the dignity of the court." Zambardo v. City of Austin, 885 F.2d 1473, 16 1478 (9th Cir. 1989) (citing United States v. Galt, 517, 539 (1925)). As such, this 17 Court has the power to issue orders to nonparties, e.g., SECO Nevada v. McMordie (In re
18 Holloway), 88 F.2d 1006 (9th Cir. 1936) (ordering attorney's fees for nonparties whose 19 conduct, like Mr. Hill's, caused parties to incur additional expenses); Corder v. Howard Johnson 20 & Co., 53 F.3d 225, 232 (9th Cir. 1994). The Court also has the authority to find a nonparty in 21 contempt for failing to follow an order. See, e.g., David v. Hooker, Ltd., 560 F.2d 412, 416 (9th 22 Cir. 1977).

330 Market Place One
2003 Western Avenue
Seattle, Washington 98121
(206) 443-0670 Fax: (206) 448-2252

Mr. Hill is not strictly speaking a non-party to this proceeding because he purports to be able act on the Defendant's behalf. He claims to have a power of attorney which entitles him to do so, and he has named himself as a Plaintiff in the lawsuit filed in this Court. In any event, the Court has inherent jurisdiction to deal with Mr. Hill in order to maintain order and the dignity of the Court. There is reason to believe that in spite of the Defendant's best efforts to put a stop to Hill's behavior, he will continue to interfere with Defendant's right to counsel and will attempt to disrupt these proceedings. It is therefore appropriate and necessary for the Court to intervene.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Court should grant the relief requested herein.

DECLARATION OF GILBERT
H. LEVY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR AN ORDER TO
SHOW CAUSE

Gilbert H. Levy declares and certifies as follows:

1. I am the appointed counsel for the defendant above named. I am competent to a witness and have knowledge of the facts set forth herein.
2. On November 28, 2012, I telephoned Mark Hill at my client's request. I informed Mr. Hill of the no-contact order issued by Magistrate Judge Donohue and I requested that Mr. Hill refrain from any further contact with my client. I informed Mr. Hill that my client had executed a revocation of the power of attorney. I requested that Mr. Hill refrain from filing any further pleadings in this case which purport to be on behalf of my client. I informed Mr. Hill that my client requested that he move out of my client's residence.

3. Mr. Hill informed me that the power of attorney that my client had granted to him was irrevocable. He requested a meeting with me and my client which I declined. Mr. Hill informed me that he had a contractual obligation with my client to continue to file pleadings on his behalf and that he would not refrain from doing so unless my client executed a "release of liability".

Mr. Hill informed me that he would not move out of the residence because he was a part owner but that he would allow me and my client to go to the residence to retrieve his belongings upon my conversation with Mr. Hill. I have reasonable cause to believe that Mr. Hill will continue to attempt to interfere with the attorney-client relationship and to disrupt these proceedings unless there is intervention by the Court.

4. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the facts contained in the motion for an order to show cause are true.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury of the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

MAGISTRATE JUDGE TSUCHIDA

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Plaintiff,
vs.
FRED FRANK
Defendant.

Cause No. CR12-262RSL

RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO GOVERNMENT'S MOTION TO REVOKE BOND

Defendant Fred Frank, by and through his attorney, Gilbert H. Levy, responds in opposition to the Government's motion to revoke his bond as follows:

For some time the Defendant has been under the undue influence of an individual named Mark Hill, who managed to convince the Defendant that he has successfully practiced in federal court for a number of years. Mr. Hill is not an attorney - he appears to fit the profile of a "constitutionalist", someone who has a fixed set of irrational beliefs about the law and legal proceedings specifically related to the powers of the Federal Government. Mr. Hill managed to convince the Defendant that he should be allowed to represent him in this case. Mr. Hill has made several unsuccessful attempts to appear on Mr. Frink's behalf in proceedings before Judge Lasnik. Mr. Hill has also filed a number of pleadings in this matter which consist of nonsensical constitutionalist gibberish. On November 16, 2012, Mr. Frink appeared before Judge Lasnik with Assistant Federal Defendant Nancy Tenny. At that time, Ms. Tenny was relieved as counsel and the undersigned was appointed to replace her. A status conference is presently scheduled before Judge Lasnik on November 30, 2012 at 1:30 a.m.

On or about November 26, 2012, Mr. Hill filed what is styled as a civil lawsuit in District Court. The matter has been assigned to Judge Loughlin. Judge Lasnik, Magistrate Judge Tsuchida, United States Attorney James Durham, AUSA Thomas Woods, the Federal Defender

Office and Secretary of the Treasury Timothy Geithner were named as defendants in the lawsuit.

The lawsuit also consists of nonsensical constitutionalist gibberish. Based upon the lawsuit, Federal Services Officer Mark Okano requested issuance of a warrant for violation of the terms of pretrial release. The Defendant was arrested the same day that the lawsuit was filed.

Mr. Frink made an initial appearance before Magistrate Judge Donohue on November 27, 2012. Prior to the initial appearance, Mr. Frink met with the undersigned and his associate Jennifer Kaplan in the Magistrate's lockup. In that meeting, Mr. Frink expressed awareness that he has been defrauded by Mr. Hill and he advised the undersigned that he wishes to dissociate himself from Mr. Hill. He authorized the undersigned to immediately dismiss the above referenced lawsuit. This was communicated to Magistrate Judge Donohue at the initial appearance. Magistrate Judge Donohue recognized at that hearing that Mr. Frink has come under the undue influence of Mr. Hill and he agreed to release Mr. Frink, subject to the additional condition that Mr. Frink refrain from any contact with Mr. Hill pending the hearing before this Court.

At the hearing, it was brought the Court's attention that Mr. Hill has been residing with Mr. Frink at his residence and so it would not be possible for Mr. Frink to return to his residence and disassociate himself from Mr. Hill. At that point in the hearing, a friend of the Defendant, Jill Lane, came forward and offered to allow the Defendant to reside with her until such time as alternative living arrangements could be made. Mr. Frink has since made alternative temporary living arrangements and is now residing with Ms. Lane. He is residing at 425 Vine Street, 415, Seattle WA 98101. He has informed pre-trial services Officer, Mark Okano, of this change in temporary residence. He will reside at this location at least until he can retrieve his belongings from his primary residence and arrange for more permanent accommodation. The Defendant has a car in Snohomish County where he cannot drive pending trial. Mr. Frink has given every indication that he intends to disassociate himself from Mr. Hill. He has authorized the undersigned to dismiss the lawsuit. A copy of the authorization is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. He has revoked the power of attorney that he previously granted to Mr. Hill. A copy of the revocation of the power of attorney is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. With the Defendant's authorization, the undersigned was first a notice of voluntary dismissal with prejudice. A copy of the notice of voluntary dismissal is attached hereto as Exhibit 3. The undersigned notified the Court for an order to show cause with Judge Lasnik, directing Mark Hill to appear and show cause why he should not be subject to order directing him to refrain from any further contact with the Defendant and to refrain from filing any further pleadings in this Court which purport to be on the Defendant's behalf.

II. ARGUMENT

The undersigned maintains that the Defendant should not be found to be in violation of the terms of his pre-trial release. The defendant was misled by Mr. Hill into believing that the lawsuit was a legitimate strategy for defending against the present charges and he had no intention of harassing or intimidating a federal official. The night the Defendant spent in the Federal Detention Center following his arrest for the alleged supervised release violation was done much to disabuse him of that notion. The Defendant is now fully aware that Mr. Hill is a fraud and has been leading him down the path of self destruction. The Defendant is prepared to fully cooperate with court appointed counsel. He wished to have no further contact with Mr. Hill. He will do everything within his power to compel Mr. Hill to refrain from further frivolous filings although it may be necessary for the Court to intervene.¹ The Court now has reasonable assurance that there will be no further violations of this nature and the case can proceed in an orderly manner. There is therefore no reason for the Court to revoke the Defendant's bond even if it determines that a violation has occurred.

DATED: November 29, 2012

/s/ Gilbert H. Levy

Gilbert H. Levy, WSBA #4805
Attorney for Defendant

¹ Mr. Hill has advised the undersigned counsel that he will not refrain from filing documents in this case unless the Defendant gives him a "release of liability". He has also stated that he will not move out of the Defendant's residence and he has requested a meeting with the Defendant. The Defendant has declined the invitation to meet with Mr. Hill.

CONSENT TO DISMISS LAWSUIT

I, Fred Frink, I am the person designated as plaintiff "Fred Francis" in civil lawsuit 12-C-2048-JCC. I consent to dismiss that lawsuit. I also consent to dismiss all pro se filings and documents filed by Mark Edward Hill in criminal case 12-CR-262-RSL, as well as the appeal that was filed on my behalf in that case.

I had granted my verbal consent to dismiss these filings during a meeting with attorney Gilbert Levy preceding a hearing on November 27, 2012, and again at the hearing. This document memorializes my verbal agreement.
